All organizations, band offices, and educational institutes must have a designated signing officer. The signing officer must be a school principal, librarian, executive director, or manager. This means that all materials borrowed from the Resource Centre will be forwarded to the signing officer of their organization, band office, or educational institute. The organization, band office, or educational institute is responsible for all materials that are late, damaged, or lost. If the signing officer wishes to allow other personnel to borrow material from the Resource Centre, please list their names on the following page.
